Residential on 0.34 Acres

Rubio Estate, Bastrop, TX

Charm & Craftsmanship in Bastrop. From the moment you step inside, this home shows its personality with pecan and hickory woodwork throughout, cabinetry designed for real living—including a clever under-cabinet mixer lift—and a kitchen that ties it all together with Caesarstone counters, a ZLINE gas range, an LG Smart Refrigerator with craft ice, and a wide window over the sink framing big sky views. Bathrooms feature quality fixtures including a waterfall tub, rain shower, and handheld sprayers, while the owner's retreat offers extra soundproofing, a utility half bath, and an upstairs bonus room that adds flexibility for any need. Original wood floors highlight the character of the home, unique tilework adds style and charm, and outdoor living shines with a full-length front porch, low-maintenance landscaping, natural stone accents, a wood deck, stone seating around the fire pit, and multiple shade trees set in decomposed granite with steel edging. The playscape and workshop, both clad in cedar siding, complete the property's easy outdoor living feel designed for relaxing and entertaining both mornings and evenings alike. Sitting on a huge lot in Downtown Bastrop, this home is ideal for a future shop, garage, pool, or casita, all within walking distance to restaurants, shops, the riverwalk, and Fisherman's Park. Timeless style meets practical updates with the refrigerator, washer, and dryer conveying—making this home truly move-in ready and waiting for its new owners.
