Residential on 0.25 Acres

Nuckles Crossing Sec 02, Austin, TX

Welcome to this charming single-story house nestled in Southeast Austin! The standout feature of this property is its remarkable backyard space, enclosed by a high-metal fence for added privacy and security. The expansive backyard boasts a covered patio, metal shed, and additional covered areas, providing a versatile outdoor living space perfect for various activities and relaxation. The absence of an HOA adds to the appeal, allowing residents the freedom to personalize and enjoy their property without additional restrictions.

Inside, the home has been updated to enhance both aesthetics and functionality. Granite countertops and quality stainless steel appliances in the kitchen add a touch of modern luxury. The inclusion of security cameras contributes to the overall safety and peace of mind for residents.

Notable features of this property include a durable metal roof, additional living spaces, a fireplace, and more, offering a blend of comfort and style. These features enhance the overall appeal and functionality of the home.

The location of the house is another strong point. Close proximity to McKinney Falls State Park, Clay & Kizer Golf Course, the airport, and just minutes from I-35 ensures residents have easy access to outdoor recreation, golfing, travel, and everyday conveniences.

Nearby HEB, shops, eateries, and entertainment options add to the convenience and livability of the area.

This house presents a move-in-ready option with a stylish interior, an impressive backyard, and a range of desirable features. Its strategic location makes it an attractive choice for those seeking a blend of comfort, convenience, and outdoor amenities. Prospective buyers or renters may find this property appealing for its well-maintained features and its proximity to various attractions and necessities. It's advisable for the agent to verify all facts and figures for potential buyers' peace of mind.
